SPACE ALIEN BABY SURVIVES UFO CRASH!

By JENNIFER BROOKES / Weekly World News

A top-secret government report has revealed that a manned starship from another galaxy crashed on a barren mesa in New Mexico and that only one survivor was found — a 3-month-old baby!

The tiny humanoid female was encased in a heavily padded metallic canister that apparently was ejected from the spacecraft seconds before it slammed into the mesa and exploded in flames. The crash was witnessed by Navajo Indians who quickly notified military authorities. Those officials will neither confirm nor deny the crash or the existence of the alien infant.

WEEKLY WORLD NEWS SPECIAL EDITION

The report revealed that the charred remains of four "adult" alien beings were removed from the wreckage by a special military team trained to rescue or recover victims of spacecraft disasters on Earth.

The "eyes only" report was released by an aerospace physician outraged over government plans to subject the baby to a series of tests that included dissecting the alien's brain.

"They wanted to examine and dissect that poor alien baby like some common laboratory rat," the doctor declared angrily. "She's a living, breathing creature with an intelligence that must be beyond anything we can even begin to imagine."

The doctor, who cannot be identified, described the baby as so different from human babies in size, shape and weight, but said the similarity ends there.

"Her facial features are like something out of a science fiction comic book. She has huge, glowing eyes. God! When she looks at me, I get the feeling she's looking right into my soul," he said. "Her skin color is pale blue and has areas that are covered with scales.

"But not like those of a fish. They're more snake-like . . . small and firm.

"Her nose is her most human feature, but her mouth has no lips and, to me, is somewhat chimp-like. That's the only way I can describe it. She has no teeth, but that's to be expected in an infant who appears to be about 3 months old.

"But what I find most astonishing is that she has eyelashes. It's the only hair on her body, but by Earth standards that makes her a mammal and capable of nursing and suckling young. She also has what appear to be human-like female sexual organs."

The doctor said that because the alien infant is a mammal, she probably required breast-feeding.

"Sadly, it's a virtual certainty that one of the charred bodies taken from the crashed UFO is that of her mother," he added.

"Recovering that baby is an incredible stroke of luck . . . a chance in a million to expand our knowledge of life in the universe beyond our wildest dreams," he added.

"By bringing her existence into the open as I did, there's just no way they can carry on experiments that will harm her.

"She's in the spotlight now and millions of people around the world will be watching to make certain the little tyke gets her chance at life . . . just like anyone else."

FIERY METEORITE CRASH RAISES THE DEAD

BRUCK, Austria — Police are investigating reports that 200 corpses rose from their graves and marched through this village after a meteorite slammed into a lake two miles away.

At least 40 witnesses say they saw dead friends and loved ones walk through the center of town and into a lake east of here. And incredibly, authorities confirm that 200 bodies that had been buried in the local cemetery have disappeared.

"I don't know what's going on," Police Captain Walter Mauer told newsmen. "The witnesses all say the same thing. They say a large, fiery rock fell out of the sky during a meteor shower and disappeared in a lake east of the village.

Six-mile-wide UFO terrifies millions!

JINGMEN, China — A gigantic UFO — six miles wide and shaped like a coiled serpent — struck terror in the hearts of millions of people as it swept over four provinces in central China!

The eerie glow emanating from the colossal UFO — which two astrophysicists definitely identified as a spaceship — sent residents screaming into the streets.

"I thought it was the end of the world," said businessman Yu Enang. "I was certain that a great serpent had come to kill us all."

Most witnesses described the starship as a huge, shimmering coil that rotated clockwise at high speed as it rocketed through the night sky only 1,000 feet or so above the ground.

LUGGAGE FLOATING IN SPACE

Thousands of pieces of luggage floating in orbit around the Earth — and stunned scientists have no idea how they got there!

The bags were photographed by astronauts during a recent flight of the space shuttle Endeavour, a NASA source said. And incredibly, there are so many trunks, suitcases and duffel bags floating around out there that NASA is worried they may present a danger to space flight.

"If a spacecraft traveling at high speed should happen to collide with one of these objects, it could be severely crippled or even destroyed," said a high-ranking NASA official who asked to remain anonymous.

"But frankly, at this point we don't know how many pieces are out there or how in the world they got into orbit without being destroyed."

'CHALLENGER' WAS SHOT DOWN — BY A UFO!

By DON GILARDI / Weekly World News

A spectacular videotape made by a Florida tourist reveals that the explosion of the space shuttle Challenger wasn't caused by faulty O-rings — the shuttle was actually shot down by a UFO!

At one point in the chilling video, the marauding UFO is clearly seen blasting the Challenger with a fiery, laser-like beam as the ill-fated shuttle rocketed from its launch pad at Kennedy Space Center with seven crew members aboard on Jan. 28, 1986.

After the explosion, the UFO can be seen hovering among the bulk-tale plumes of smoke that trailed the Challenger and its dying astronauts back to Earth.

"Not even NASA brass in Houston can sweep this one under the rug," claims James Moore, an expert in computerized imaging enhancement. "There isn't the slightest possibility that the tape is a fake.

"The man who made the tape is an above-average amateur with a damn good video camera. But he doesn't have the technical skill or the equipment to fake a shot like this.

"Besides, he has nothing to gain. He doesn't want money and he insists on remaining anonymous. Plain and simple, the tape is genuine. I'll stake my reputation on it."

The man who taped the spectacular footage was a tourist from Los Angeles who had set up his full-size video camera on the causeway over the Banana River, just south of the NASA launch complex in central Florida.

"The camera has a 12-to-1 zoom lens and was fitted with a converter that doubled its telephoto capability," Moore said. "His rig has vertical and horizontal gyro stabilizers and was top model, but he used it in its manual-focus mode."

The video film shows what appears to be a silvery blip high in the sky and well beyond the rising shuttle. But with great magnification and computer enhancement, the blip is easily recognizable as an alien spacecraft. And one computer-enhanced image shows a laser-like beam from the UFO striking the spot where sections of one of the shuttle's fuel tanks are joined.

Once believed to have been caused by faulty O-rings sealing the fuel tank sections, the Challenger disaster claimed the lives of everyone on board, including Christa McAuliffe, who'd been selected to be America's first teacher in space.

Christa's parents were among the hundreds at the launch site who watched in horror as the shuttle blew apart. Millions more saw the disaster on television.

But until now, apparently no one was aware of the messenger of death lurking in the clear, blue skies over

Savage tribe had kept grisly feast a secret since 1936!

CANNIBAL CHIEF said the extraterrestrials tasted like frogs' legs

CANNIBALS ATE 6 SPACE ALIENS!

By RAGAN DUNN / Weekly World News

New Guinea cannibals murdered and ate six space aliens who came to Earth on a mission of peace in 1936!

That's the shocking claim of Swiss anthropologist Dr. Fritz Greder, who actually spoke with an elderly savage who dined on one of the extraterrestrials 60 years ago this summer.

"It's a fantastic story but one that I am convinced is true," Dr. Greder told reporters in Zurich. "The cannibal chief I spoke with is almost 100 years old, but his mind and memory are sharp.

"He clearly recalled the arrival of the aliens in a silver starship in 1936.

"He also remembered that the creatures were killed and eaten because they behaved strangely and lost the tribe's trust.

"He said the extraterrestrials tasted like frogs' legs or fish. But humans, he told me, taste just like pork."

Dr. Greder met the cannibal chief while studying tribal life in the jungles of New Guinea late last year.

The incredible story came to light after the old man warmed up to the scientist during their long conversations on the tribe's history. The chief told Dr. Greder he had a secret to share — and proceeded to describe the bizarre encounter that unfolded 60 years ago.

"He told me that the aliens arrived during a time of terrible tribal warfare," said Dr. Greder. "He said that they were no bigger than children but their flesh was a deep, rich green.

"They spoke to the tribesmen in their own jungle language and insisted that they had come to Earth on a mission of peace.

"The tribesmen welcomed the savages for a day or two. But the cannibals became suspicious and ate them after they were caught examining a child."

Dr. Greder said the old chief told him the alien starship glowed bright white and vanished a few hours after the E.T.s were killed.

"I'm sure the chief's story is accurate," he said, "and it really is a shame. These savages felt guilty about what they had done — and that's why they kept it a secret all these years."

WINNIPEG, Manitoba — The legendary Bigfoot that prowls the Earth from the Himalayas to the wilds of America's Pacific Northwest is not the missing link between ape and man — he's actually a visitor from outer space!

"We've had to put up with the mysterious visits of these terrifying creatures for at least 20 years," said Gerald Valiquette, a 54-year-old backwoodsman who lives along the northern reaches of the meandering Poplar River 200 miles northeast of here.

Valiquette and several of his neighbors have reported watching their unearthly cargo — huge, lumbering beasts that walk on their hind legs and are covered with thick mats of long, dark, stringy hair.

"I myself have been chased by one of these creatures — and narrowly escaped with my life," the rugged trapper told a reporter.

"I've watched that same thing happen four times in the last two years," Leah said.

"The ship is a monstrous thing, at least 100 meters in diameter.

"It just sort of spirals down to Earth on the riverbank, lets maybe eight or nine Bigfoots out and then zooms off into space without a sound. I myself have seen at least 40 Bigfoots deposited here, so I know they've got a whole colony of them out there in those woods."

Earlier this year, after a rash of UFO sightings in the Poplar River area, a Mountie patrolling the region made two plaster casts of 15-inch footprints he found upriver from the landing site.

The footprints absolutely dwarf a black bear print found in the same area, and a Canadian anthropologist who has examined the casts said he knows of no earthly creature who could have made prints so large.

Roman Catholics training new breed of priests for contact with alien beings

By RON LANEY / Weekly World News

ROME — The Vatican is training a bold new breed of missionary to spread the gospel — in outer space!

"Without a doubt, this is the most staggering development in the history of organized religion," said theology professor Dr Enzo Carelli.

"For the first time, a major church is recognizing that man is not the only intelligent being in the universe. Not only that, the church is preparing to convert extraterrestrials to a religious system that is almost certainly foreign to their own."

News that the Roman Catholic Church has begun to train priests for alien contact came to light in a brief but revealing press release issued by the Vatican.

The release noted that a special UFO section has been established at the Vatican University's Alfonsian Academy to shape the "attitudes, approaches and techniques" missionaries will need to Christianize aliens once official contact is made.

"This futuristic training program is an idea whose time has come," said Vatican theologian Father Pierre Sorel.

UFO experts, however, have differing opinions of the Vatican's space-priest initiative. Carlo Maccorinio, president of the Rome-based group Citizens for Non-Intervention in Alien Affairs, was especially critical of the plan.

"Missionaries are among the most-hated foreigners in the Third World," he said.

"What makes the Catholic Church think that aliens will like its emissaries any better? These missionaries could set our relations with space aliens back hundreds of years."

But Dr. Theodore Himmel, the noted German psychologist, disagreed.

"By converting aliens to Christianity, we would immediately establish a common ground," he said.

"What better way to foster a spirit of cooperation and respect than to offer them love and humor.

PITALITO, Colombia — Scientists are questioning a frightened farmer who swears he had a close encounter of the third kind — with a 7-foot-tall sissy from outer space!

Horrified Hector Bria, 34, told authorities the gay alien visited his isolated mountain home and tried to romance him. When he spurned the space fairy's advances, the creature burst into tears, he said.

Psychiatrists say this is the first instance in thousands of sightings in which a space alien showed signs of homosexuality.

He spoke to me using mental telepathy," Bria told Colombian police investigators. "He told me he was a member of his species, just as I am a member of the human species. But he didn't act like any male, that's for sure. He acted like a person from another planet."

Space sissy just smelled flowers & recited poetry!

The father of three told authorities the long-haired visitor showed up at his home on the night of July 7 awakening him and his wife with a knock at the door.

He said he thought the creature was human until he let him in and the light revealed the shocking truth. Bria described the alien as at least seven feet tall with pale green skin, huge eyes and a large mouth.

He had a human-like nose and ears and wore a thick layer of makeup. His limbs were thin and rubbery and he wore shiny, pointed-toed boots, the farmer said.

HORRIFIED Hector Bria.

"When he walked, he sort of minced along and fluttered his hands," Bria said.

"He was clutching a bunch of flowers from my wife's garden. Almost all he did at first was smell the flowers and spout poetry at us telepathically. He wore a kind of silver jumpsuit over silver-and-while I just stood there, starting."

Bria believes the strange visit lasted about 10 minutes, during which the cosmic queen sashayed around his home, trying on his wife's jewelry.

Using telepathy, he told Bria about his long, lonely days and nights aboard a spaceship from a distant galaxy. He told the stunned Colombian that he and his fellow creatures had come here merely to see what Earth was like. Finally, tiring of the small talk, the intergalactic gay approached Bria, grabbed him and kissed him passionately on the neck.

"I was just about sick to my stomach," Bria recalled. "I pushed him away and he started to cry. Then, before I knew it, he flounced out the door and was gone."

Bria said he has not heard from his swishy visitor since that night.

RUSSIANS SHOOT DOWN UFO

Angry aliens turn Soviet soldiers into stone!

By NICK MANN / Weekly World News

WASHINGTON — Soviet troops shot down a low-flying UFO in Siberia in 1967 but the space alien survivors got their revenge — by turning 23 Russian soldiers to stone.

That's the word from CIA sources who have access to dozens of Soviet spy files that have surfaced in the United States since former Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev dismantled the country's super-secret KGB intelligence agency after the collapse of communism in 1991.

The UFO file reportedly contains 250 pages of eyewitness testimony from two soldiers who mysteriously survived the extraterrestrial attack. A dramatic photo of the crash site, along with sketches of the space aliens themselves, round out the report, which one CIA source called "the most-chilling portrait of extraterrestrial revenge on record."

"This single file has done more to open our eyes to alien intentions and alien might than anything else in the history of UFOs," said one of two CIA insiders who leaked portions of the secret KGB file to trusted reporters here.

"They possess weapons and technologies that are superior to anything we have here on Earth.

"And this incident shows that when pushed into a corner, extraterrestrials will use everything at their disposal to protect themselves."

According to the KGB file, Soviet soldiers on routine maneuvers spotted the saucer-shaped craft flying at low altitude at 8:35 a.m. on Oct. 15, 1967.

THIS CRUDE sketch of one of the small-headed aliens was part of the KGB file on the 1967 UFO incident. Notations indicate that it was drawn by one of the soldiers who survived when his buddies were turned to stone by the creatures.

"The craft was flying erratically, and then suddenly it exploded in midair, causing it to crash 23 yards east of the patrol's position.

The UFO slammed to the ground with an impact that literally cracked open the hull. And even though the troops kept their distance, they were reportedly taken "totally off guard" when five tiny humanoids with "large heads, large black eyes and segmented snouts" emerged from the wreckage.

"The unarmed soldiers who survived the alien attack said the creatures trotted clear of the wreckage, huddled briefly, and then merged into 'a single, ball-shaped entity,'" said the CIA source.

"It's hard to grasp what occurred next. Eight-and-a-half minutes later the ball doubled in size and exploded into 'a blinding burst of splintered light.'

"Soviet investigators were never able to determine the why or how of it. But when the incident was over, the space aliens were gone. 23 Russian soldiers had turned to stone — and the two survivors were left scratching their heads, wondering why the explosion of light had absolutely no effect on them."

The KGB report said that the UFO wreckage and "stone soldiers" were taken to a research facility near Moscow for study.

Space aliens making deposits — in our SPERM banks!

By JOE BERGER

BONN, Germany — Cagey space aliens are making deposits in hundreds of unsuspecting sperm banks here on Earth — in a sinister scheme to conquer our planet without ever firing a shot.

That chilling revelation was made by famed physicist and UFO researcher Dr. Gerhard Dieter, who says evil E.T.s hope to infiltrate our population — and eventually wipe out the entire human race — by impregnating scads of Earthlings every chance they get.

"They want our planet for themselves, but they're smart enough not to wage a war that would destroy everything the Earth has to offer," Dr. Dieter told a conference on interplanetary travel.

So they plan to take over by mating their genes with ours to the point that the Earthling creatures disappear from our own planet and the whole place is populated by aliens.

Dr. Gerhard Dieter

There was no way to stop interbreeding already that it is almost impossible to know whether your neighbor — or the person sitting next to you in a packed Earthling pub — is part Earthling and part extraterrestrial, a government source speculated.

And these crafty creatures are making deposits in sperm banks in America, Europe and Asia as part of their weasely scheme, the expert said.

"Their ability to assume a human outward appearance and humanoid mannerisms has made it possible for them to actually marry and breed with Earthlings," he said ominously.

"But in the past three years, there have been massive withdrawals of our sperm banks to speed the process along — and they consider these deposits to be a key part of their grand design."

Dieter said he is keeping in touch with the general population, makes it a point to shake the hands of newly married couples and pats all their sperm as it passes by. He's sure that thousands of sperm with alien characteristics are already swimming in the wombs of Earth women.

Dieter said he has been in contact with visitors from already planets for more than two decades and believes the crafty creatures believe they can control our planet completely within just years.

"To us, 100 years may seem like a long time, but to these guys, it's like the blink of an eye," he said.

BILLBOARDS IN SPACE

I'm madder than the Michelin Tire man with a nail in his foot over all the protest about putting billboards in outer space.

That's right, folks. If all goes well, we could soon have The Golden Arches in orbit.

A Roswell, Ga., company is ready to send a mile-long neon sign to the stars — and I think it's GREAT!

"It's very feasible," says a spokesman for the company. "We could fly the Golden Arches in space and they might appear as large as the full moon."

But Surprise! Surprise! Surprise! The screaming environmentalists are already pitching a litany fit and the dang signs aren't even up there yet.

"It's horrifying," said Robert Park of the American Physical Society, a club for physics egg heads.

"We're absolutely sick to our stomachs," whines Jane Crutchfield of Citizens Against Space Pollution. "Now we're going to destroy the heavens with cheap advertisements."

"Soon, when we gaze at the night sky, a big sign saying EAT AT JOE'S will be blinking on and off at us. We must stop the madness now."

Well, excuuuuuse me! I for one would love to see billboards in space. For crying out loud.

Let's face it. I'm darn tired of looking at the same old moon and stars night after night. Even comets are no big deal once you've seen one or two of 'em zip by.

Ain't there's never an eclipse where I live for some reason, so for me the sky has gotten BOOOORING.

I'd like nothing better than to take the family out in the backyard on summer evenings to try to spot those orbiting ads. And if you happened to miss an ad the first time, you could always catch it when it came back around in a few hours.

Hell, if I had my way, I'd put a big old ad on the moon.

For one thing, with ads in space, NASA could make a fortune charging advertisers for changing the burned-out bulbs on their signs. Space shuttle astronauts would be busy as bees up there keeping those babies lit and changing the advertisements on them every month or so.

And once we got about 10,000 of these neon signs floating around up there, we'd cut crude oil in half.

Why? Because it would never get dark down here. That's why. We could turn off all the streetlights and it would still look like high noon, even at midnight. The muggers would hate it.

And we could have baseball and football games at night without ever turning on the lights. Personally I can't wait.

SPACE BILLBOARDS WON'T ATTRACT ALIEN TRAFFIC COPS, as the cartoon suggests, but NASA stands to make a fortune sending up shuttles to change the burned-out lightbulbs

Natives find dead E.T. inside belly of 18-foot boa constrictor!

YELWA, Nigeria — Natives cut open the bulging belly of an 18-foot boa constrictor expecting to find the body of a missing child inside — and instead found the corpse of a space alien!

A Yelwa Police Department source says the 3-foot-high E.T. was still wearing a transparent plastic spacesuit.

"He must have been caught unawares after he landed in the jungle," the source said.

"We've got UFO experts coming from everywhere trying to get a look at the body."

The missing child was found hours later at the home of an aunt.

WASHINGTON — NASA is being rocked by serious internal turmoil — over plans to send the first-ever gay astronaut into space!

"A lot of straight astronauts are pretty upset by the whole idea," one insider said. "All the astronauts know who the gay fellow is and they have nothing personal against him.

"What has everyone really ticked off is that NASA plans to promote the decision as a major step forward for gay rights."

Aliens take kids for joyride!

By TEDDY GERALD

CONCORDIA, Argentina — A silver, saucer-shaped spaceship swooped out of the sky, sucked up three shell-shocked children — and took them on a three-day spin across the universe!

The [illegible] children marks the second time in four years that friendly aliens have abducted kids from the same field and taken them on a sightseeing tour through space.

There is no doubt in my mind these children are telling the truth that we're unknown beings took them on a spectacular ride around the stars," Police Investigator Rodolfo Ortiz said. "They are much too young to make up a story like this in such detail.

And their encounter bears a startling similarity to one experienced by four other youngsters at the same spot in 1992.

More than a dozen bewildered adults told police they saw a diamond-shaped craft snatch 8-year-old Emma de Paolo, her 5-year-old brother Edgar and their 6-year-old friend Francesco Lopez from a soccer field here.

"They said the craft bathed the little ones in a beam of bright blue light that seemed to gently draw them into the underbelly of the spaceship," the investigator said.

"Three days later, another group of witnesses saw the UFO return and deposit the children on the same field."

The bewildered kids apparently suffered no ill effects from their ghostly journey across the galaxy. But, like the youngsters abducted in 1992, they returned with bizarre needle marks on the [illegible] heads performed by their curious captors.

"They stuck some things in our cheeks with needles but they didn't hurt us," related Edgar, that's [illegible]

"They gave us lots of candy they said came from their home far away. And did the aliens have skinned us 'the stars and planets like Mars and Venus.'"

Wide-eyed Edgar said the E.T.'s who abducted them had big heads, long white hair and scary skin.

"Later, was the best ride of my life," the boy said. "He laughed and told us stories and he made us wear our seat belts so we wouldn't bump our heads and get hurt."

Kids abducted in 1992 also had marks on their faces.

We humans are being abducted by space aliens at an alarming rate — and the number of kidnappings is increasing so rapidly that experts believe there will soon come a time when every man, woman and child on the planet will have an abduction tale to tell.

On the following four pages, you will read the chilling stories of ordinary people just like you who have been snatched from the complacency of their everyday lives by beings from an unseen world. They KNOW what the rest of us can only attempt — that space aliens are here, and they are here to stay.

Trip in UFO leaves Houston woman terrified of her kitchen!

ALIENS toyed with Brenda's mind. Now she's afraid of her kitchen

By BEATRICE DEXTER Weekly World News

HOUSTON — Brenda Dubois was kidnapped by space aliens — and ever since she's had an overwhelming fear of kitchen appliances!

The divorced secretary says the sight or sound of a mixer, food processor or even a refrigerator fills her with terror, and she blames the aliens for implanting these feelings in her mind.

"I was perfectly normal until they took me here three years ago," she said, sitting in my office. says the 41-year-old mother of two.

"Now I can't even go into a kitchen. I have to have my kids do everything for me."

The shaken lady says she was walking from her driveway to her home here late one night when powerful lights appeared out of the sky and froze her in her tracks. The next thing she knew, she was flying off to a silver saucer.

Inside the ship, tiny aliens stripped her and put her into a deep trance.

"When I woke up again, I was standing and I was sitting in the front seat of my car with no memory of how I got there," she says. "Three days had passed in a daze of my kitchen."

Mrs. Dubois has been examined by a number of specialists in UFO abductions.

She has been hypnotized by psychologists who helped her recall the details of her nightmare. But no one has been able to erase her terror — and paralyzing — phobia.

At least two dozen of them say they saw Paulet being hauled aboard the ship by baby E.T.s only seconds before the craft soared silently skyward.

The policeman has taken a leave from his job and is undergoing hypnotherapy in an attempt to recall what happened to him during his "lost hours."

"For my sake, I just have to know what went on up there," he said.

Psychiatrist says . . .

People who see UFOs are NOT nuts!

WASHINGTON — People who say they've been abducted by space aliens are "telling the truth," a Georgetown University psychiatrist says.

Dr. James Gordon has logged many hours of conversation with UFO abductees and has found that "the vast majority of these people just aren't crazy," he said.

"When we talk, they are coherent and thoughtful, flexible rather than inflexible. Aside from their UFO experiences they don't have ideas that could be called particularly odd or paranoid."

But the abductees don't appear to be fantasy-prone, Dr. Gordon said.

"Finally, these UFO abductees do not seem to be using the experience to manipulate others, to gain publicity or to make money. Indeed, most have requested anonymity.

"In short, UFO abductees are not mental cases or publicity hounds. Rather they are individuals who have had an experience that has affected them profoundly.

"As far as I can determine, they are telling the truth."

I WAS RAPED BY A SPACE ALIEN!

By BEATRICE DEXTER, Weekly World News

NEW YORK CITY — Divorced mom Connie Hrebiniak-Lee was kidnapped, abused and raped — by space aliens!

Now the courageous woman is coming forward with her horrifying story in the hope that she can help others who have suffered a similar ordeal by revealing they are not alone.

"What I went through was terrible, but I know I'm not the only woman who has had that happen to her," said Connie, 36.

UFO experts have told me that one out of every 50 Americans have been abducted by aliens.

"I want the government to stop covering up the truth about aliens. They are all around us, damaging people's minds and bodies.

"As long as we deny this is happening, we'll be helpless guinea pigs for all these extraterrestrials."

Connie was abducted from the terrace of her high-rise apartment in the night of Aug. 3, 1991. She and her daughter Tina, 7, had gone to [illegible] and Connie had gone to bed early [illegible] a bright light shining in her window.

Incredibly, she suddenly found herself floating in the air, suspended above the streets of New York.

The next thing I knew I was on the ground, somewhere in the heart of Central Park, surrounded by four muscular aliens," Connie recalled.

Four of them grabbed me by the arms and legs and I started [illegible] and screaming into a huge, disc-shaped spaceship.

Inside, inside she was subjected to horrifying medical experiments — and raped by [illegible] with grey skin and red eyes, [illegible] an organ with [illegible] and [illegible] hands [illegible]

Unable to resist, [illegible] on her own bed, her body bruised and battered!

She went to a hospital emergency room, where doctors treated her as a rape victim [illegible] and [illegible] her experiences [illegible] but the aliens chuckled [illegible] kept her experiences a secret.

"I was afraid to tell — afraid no one would believe me," Connie told [illegible] I was right there, I began a [illegible] program with [illegible] people who'd been abducted by aliens, and that I realized I wasn't the only one.

"I realized I had a duty to come forward and tell what happened to me — for my own sake and the sake of every woman who's ever been raped by one of these creatures from out there."

How to tell if you've been abducted by space aliens!

LAS VEGAS — As many as a million Americans a year are abducted by space aliens — and many of them don't even know it!

"Using powers we don't fully understand, extraterrestrials often block out most or all of our recollection of these encounters, leaving us with only a vague sensation that something bizarre has happened in our lives," said a spokesman for the Alien Research Institute here.

"Many abductees don't recall their experiences for years — and many others never do."

Experts at the Alien Research Institute offered these tip-offs that you may have been kidnapped by extraterrestrials at some time in your life:

- You wake up in the middle of the night feeling that something strange has just happened to you.
- You feel as though you are constantly being watched.
- You find yourselves bruised or cut and have no idea how the injuries occurred.
- You have acquired a lot of knowledge on a subject you never had much interest in and you can't locate the source of that knowledge.
- Things disappear in your home and reappear days later in places where you know you would have seen them if they'd been there before.
- You often see someone or some thing out of the corner of your eye, then turn to find that nothing is there.
- There is a location where you feel uneasy but don't know why.
- You hear a sound like a small firecracker between 3 a.m. and 4 a.m. — then suddenly discover that daylight has arrived and you can't account for the lost time.
- You meet someone who seems very familiar to you — but you have no idea here or where you met him before.

If you believe you have been abducted by space aliens, you may obtain help by writing to the Alien Research Institute, 3997 So. Industrial Road, Las Vegas, NV 89103.

IS YOUR PET A SPACE ALIEN?

Find out here!

By KELLY FRANCES

Your dog or cat could well be an alien from outer space, says noted UFO researcher and author Brad Steiger.

"One out of five dogs and cats are space pets — descendants of original alien creatures that were 'seeded' on Earth several years ago," Steiger said.

"Millions of Americans own space pets and don't even know it, but you can tell by looking for special characteristics.

"Space pets look and act very similar to ordinary dogs and cats, but they have mental powers far greater than Earth animals.

In 30 years of research, Steiger has developed a "pattern profile" of space pets based on thousands of interviews with pet owners. Using computers he compiled statistics showing that one in five cats and dogs are space pets.

"All true space pets have such characteristics as telepathy, extrasensory perception, psychokinetic powers, very compelling eyes and healing powers.

And I suppose they also have psychic powers, they get along better with humans and can bond more closely to their masters.

"Space pets can also perform many other important functions," said Steiger, co-author of the blockbuster book The Star People.

"There's a new saga that the cat or dog is descended from space aliens.

"If extra-terrestrials adopt human pets as a because and alien intelligence is very likely to be developing about his pet's home planet. Or the pet may appear to be masked or disguised as an alien several or so a humanoid with the latter capture at the pet.

And space pets can watch [illegible] danger. Many dogs have been saved by alien pets waking their masters in the night to warn them of a gas leak or a fire.

"Space pets also exhibit startling healing powers.

"Hundreds experimenting pets and discovered their numerous illnesses — like headaches or colitis and back pain have diminished their pets' bizarre ability to cure their illness."

Another UFO expert, Hayden Howes, said 25 years of research also has convinced him that millions of Americans own space pets. From life-form to life-form, Alien have taken over the bodies of human and animal life-forms, he said.

"The dog the cat or even the bird you love so much could easily be from outer space," Howes said.

BLACK HOLE FROM SPACE FOUND IN NEVADA DESERT

RENO, Nev.— A leading geologist claims to have found a sinister black hole in the Nevada desert. Though it's smaller than the head of a pin at this point, Dr. Giovanni Intini says it's getting bigger by the minute — and will eventually suck the United States and everything else on Earth into its core!

"In time, the there will all us," the Argentine-born scientist said in an interview. "As most of you know, black holes are extremely dense objects. Their gravity is so strong that nothing escapes them can ever escape. It's more or less like a vacuum cleaner that sucks dirt off the floor of your home. The difference is that a black hole won't stop vacuuming until everything in the universe is trapped inside."

ALIEN EXORCISM

Priest saves girl possessed by space creature!

MARSEILLES, France — A Catholic priest claims to have exorcised an 8-year-old girl who was possessed by a space alien!

Father Guy Brun said the creature that took over the body of schoolgirl Brigitte Barat "looked like a floating blue brain" but had no more substance than smoke or mist.

There was no indication that the alien was evil or malicious. But the creature seemed to be hurting the girl, whether it intended to or not.

"It was a terrifying experience," Father Brun told reporters. "The alien had the child in a death grip. Only the power of the Lord made it let go."

The strange drama unfolded after the girl's parents told Father Brun that their normally well-behaved daughter had suddenly gotten out of control. The priest agreed to visit the family's home and found the child laughing hysterically — with her hand on the burner of a hot stove.

"Her flesh was smoking and burning, but it didn't seem to bother her a bit," Father Brun said. "When she saw me, she lifted her hand and levitated straight up to the ceiling. She was saying something in a strange language that I didn't understand.

"I didn't know what to do, so I held the crucifix in front of me and prayed as I'd never prayed before. The girl fell to the floor and became rigid — and then the light blue brain emerged from her chest, floated over her for a few seconds and disappeared.

"Before it left, the brain communicated with us in a sort of telepathy, telling us it was visiting Earth from another planet and meant no harm."

The child's burned hand healed immediately and she later had no memory of her astonishing ordeal, the priest said.

GUATEMALA CITY — A Guatemalan gardener says he was attacked by a [redacted] alien who tried to mate with his Weed Eater!

"He beat the hell out of me and was on my trimmer like white on rice," Eduardo Reina, 47, told newsmen who visited his home here.

"I don't care if people think I'm crazy or not. I know what happened and I've got bumps, bruises and a bent Weed Eater to prove it."

In his statement to police, Reina said he was driving his truck down an isolated road when a massive, bullet-shaped starship appeared directly in front of him, causing him to swerve into a field.

He said he was still behind the wheel — his truck engine dead — when a ramp folded out of the spaceship's belly and an alien with enormous eyes, pointed ears and long arms appeared.

"He trotted straight over to my truck," Reina said. "He pulled me out of the cab and I was so scared I begged him not to kill me. But he started beating my head with his fists and didn't stop until I fell to the ground bleeding.

"I was hurting so bad I couldn't move, but he kicked me a few times for good measure. Then he went to the back of my truck and started throwing out my equipment.

"When he got to the Weed Eater, he made a grasping motion and pulled it close to his chest. The next thing I knew, he was on the ground with it. There was no question what he was trying to do."

Reina says the alien endured a few minutes of frustration before he gave up and returned to his UFO and vanished over the horizon.

Eduardo Reina

The landscaper eventually managed to get back into his truck and drive to a hospital, where he was treated for cuts and bruises before being released.

Police Capt. Jorge Lozano said detectives found burn marks on the ground where the spaceship reportedly landed. And the Weed Eater was badly bent, as if it had been manhandled, he said.

"It's my belief that something strange went on out there — something very strange," the lawman said.

Space alien lover promised me the world — and robbed me blind!

PEGGY in China Grove

Dear Dotti: A few weeks ago I was sitting in my yard watching the stars when this huge UFO landed about 75 yards from my house. Needless to say, I tried to run. But I couldn't move a muscle. As I sat there watching, this kinky space alien got out of the UFO and walked right over to me. The next thing I knew he was looking at me with these black almond-shaped eyes and speaking to me in this beautiful French accent. In an instant later we were in my bed making the most wonderful love you could ever imagine. He made all sorts of promises telling me he would take me to his home planet and shower me with riches beyond human imagination. After making love we fell asleep. But when I woke up the next morning, I felt like somebody had hit me over the head with a frying pan. To make matters worse, when I looked around, I realized my purse, coin collection, jewelries, blender and floor wax were gone! The alien robbed me blind, Dotti girl! I haven't seen him since. I don't report this to the police because they'll think I'm crazy. I don't need your help. I just wanted to warn your readers that space aliens aren't always what they appear to be. Sometimes they're thieves. — Peggy in China Grove

Dear Peggy: I hate to tell you, honey, but you've been taken! And even if they did have the technology to travel from a faraway galaxy, I seriously doubt that any of them would find you and the [illegible] attractive enough to [illegible] you.

I got drunk and ran over the neighbor's dog!

Dear Dotti: A few days ago I was driving home drunk and ran over my neighbor's German shepherd. I felt really bad about it but I was scared so I put the dog in the back of my truck and dumped it in the desert. Now I feel guilty. Should I have reported it? — Jeff in L.A.

Dear Jeff: Are you stupid? Of course you should have reported it! Now you're in big trouble. The police will find you and you'll be charged with hit-and-run, drunk driving and animal cruelty. You're looking at a heavy fine and [illegible] in the slammer. Next time, be a man and report your crimes!

Birdbrained parents keep me cooped up all the time

Dear Dotti: You won't believe this but I have to spend all my time out of school on the porch listening to the radio because both my parents work and won't let me leave the house because they think I'll get raped. I can't even go to the movies because the idiots just bought a new house that cost twice as much as our old one and there's no cash to spare. If I have to spend one more minute on the porch with my radio I'm going to kill myself — and I'm only 12 years old! Help! — Annie in Fort Wills

Dear Annie: I'm sorry you're having such a rough time, honey, but you're not the only one. Thousands of kids are in the same predicament as you. Your parents are probably overprotective because they love you so much. Tell them you're not a baby anymore and that you're old enough to take care of yourself. Maybe they'll listen.

He'd rather score bowling than have a ball with me!

Dear Dotti: My stupid husband would rather bowl with his buddies than have sex with me! It's not that I'm a dog or anything like that because I used to be a model and appeared on the centerfold of a major men's magazine. I've tried everything to turn him on — from pre-game candlelight dinners to greeting him at the front door in my underwear — but all he wants to do is bowl. At this point I'm so starved for love I could scream. You must be the only one who can help me. Dotti. What should I do? — Jan in Daytona

Dear Jan: You're not the only one with a bowling ruling in your bedroom. Tell your husband to get his head out of the gutter and start paying attention to you. Or else!

I'm having a space alien's love child!

Dear Dotti: Nobody believes a space alien made me pregnant even though I haven't had a period for four months and am getting bigger by the day. And he's disappeared. What should I do? — Frustrated in Kansas City

Dear Frustrated: Next time, be sure to get a signed statement from the alien before you have sex with him!

TOP-SECRET PHOTO PROVES HUMANS LIVED ON MARS!

By [illegible] / Weekly World News

MARS DISC[illegible] photo for [illegible] ... [illegible] walled ... [illegible] 200,000 ye...

[illegible] of Face on Mars, [illegible] was taken in 1976.

WASHINGTON — A secret NASA photograph proves beyond a doubt that the mysterious Face on Mars was carved by human beings who lived on the Red Planet 200,000 years ago — and later colonized Earth!

That's the startling conclusion of noted astrophysicist Dr. Clayton Fields, who recently obtained a copy of the photo beamed back to Earth by NASA's Mars Observer in 1993. He said the detail observed in the photo proves the face could only have been sculpted by human hands.

Nobody in authority is willing to talk about the photograph, but Dr. Fields has learned that NASA analysts have concluded that "far from being a natural formation as we once suspected, the Face on Mars was almost certainly sculpted by human hands."

The top-secret NASA report goes on to say that "at all likelihood the face was carved by our own ancestors — people who evolved and created a civilization on Mars before something happened to their own environment, forcing colonists to emigrate to Earth."

Dr. Fields said NASA brass decided that the photo should not be made public because "because society in general is not equipped to deal with the ramifications of our extraterrestrial ancestry at this time."

But the renowned space scientist says he feels that a discovery of this magnitude should not be withheld from the citizens of the mystery ever since NASA's Viking probes sent back the first close photographs in the 1970s," Dr. Fields said. "But now that we have this photographic proof the mystery is solved.

"Anyone with even a few cells of appreciate the talent, skill and thinking that went into the construction of this mile-long, 2,000-foot-high stone monument. And it doesn't take a NASA analyst to figure out that it was built by human hands.

"The fact that the face is a human face and is estimated to be at least 200,000 years old proves that an extremely advanced human civilization existed on Mars before mankind appeared on Earth.

"Estimates vary, but most scientists agree that humans first appeared on Earth between 100,000 and 200,000 years ago — which suggests that those first humans came here from Mars."

And the conclusion that Earth's life originally came from Mars was bolstered even further by the discovery of an enormous stonehenge-size map of the solar system on Mars' surface. The map, photographed by the Mars Observer reportedly in Phobos, a tiny moon between Mars and [illegible] astronomical alignment between [illegible] and Jupiter.

"Experts have long since concluded that an environmental disaster destroyed the Martian atmosphere, slowly making the planet uninhabitable," Dr. Fields said. "But would certainly give the humans who lived there a strong incentive to examine another life-sustaining planet. In this case that planet was Earth."

Jungle tribe worships the Face on Mars

BARRA DO GRACAS, Brazil — Members of an Amazon jungle tribe have worshiped the Face on Mars for more than 400 years — even though they've never seen it!

"These people are among the most primitive on Earth, but they know more about the Face on Mars than most scientists," said German anthropologist Dr. Wilhelm Schaefer. "They have worshiped the monument for four centuries and they insist that their knowledge 'came from the stars.'"

Dr. Schaefer and his colleagues discovered the Shavante tribe 200 miles north of here last March. He said they were wearing masks of their "Sky God King" — which he immediately recognized as the Face on Mars.

"Tribal elders told me that messengers from Heaven brought their people the 'Light of Truth' and gave them images of the 'Sky God King.' We can only guess who or what informed them about that Space aliens kidnapped my wife — and ate my dog!

By HANNY SHEAD / Weekly World News

FRESNILLO, Mexico — Farmer Enrique Cedillo says space aliens came to his home, kidnapped his wife — and ate his beloved hunting dog! Authorities will neither confirm nor deny that they are investigating the incident. But the 53-year-old Cedillo says one of the aliens left behind a strange metal glove that proves his incredible story.

"They took my wife and they ate my dog. I spit on those creatures from space," Cedillo said. "Why did they do this to me when I did nothing to them? They are evil to the bone."

The farmer says the strange encounter took place on the farm west of here on July 21. A bullet-shaped spacecraft appeared over head as he was working a field, he claims, and landed about 50 yards from his house.

"Four oddly walking creatures no bigger than children came out of the craft and marched into my home like they owned it," Cedillo said.

"I tried to run to stop the beasts from taking my wife but I could not move my arms. I was totally paralyzed. I couldn't even scream."

While the farmer stood motionless in his field, the extra-terrestrials emerged from the house with his wife Carmen, 51, following like a zombie.

She reportedly boarded the UFO with one of the aliens while the other three shot and killed Cedillo's hunting dog Pepe with a laser device and proceeded to eat it raw, bones and all.

"Tears were streaming down my face but I still couldn't move and I had to watch those monsters eat poor Pepe," Cedillo said.

"When they finished they went back to their ship. It made a loud whistling noise and lifted straight up in the air. It wobbled for a few seconds and vanished.

"When it was gone, I could move again. That's when I found what they left behind, a tiny metal glove."

A spokesman for the Fresnillo Police Department reported Cedillo's wife was kidnapped and his dog was killed, but refused to say whether the incidents are under investigation.

Military officials examined the glove, but they won't comment, either.

"People think I'm crazy but I'm sane," the farmer said. "If my wife was here, she would tell you. But she isn't here. She's gone. Just like that, she's gone."

FRENCH MOB STONED ALIENS TO DEATH — IN 840 A.D.

LYONS, France — Space aliens made contact with the French during the Ninth Century — and were stoned to death by an angry mob!

Contact between spacemen and humans was made in the year 840, primarily in and around Lyons, author Brad Steiger says in his exciting book The Fellowship.

"The UFOs were piloted by beings with large heads, pointed ears and bulging eyes," Steiger said. "They told [illegible]

The aliens were treated with fear and anger by the people and townsmen."

Understandably, Steiger said, an ugly dispute erupted and four of the aliens were seized and beaten with clubs. For several days, the prisoners were paraded before a mob, which suddenly went berserk and stoned them to death.

Steiger said he based his account on an original manuscript penned by Agobard, the

OUR BABY WAS A GIFT FROM SPACE ALIENS

PROUD parents Barbara and Larry McMarra and their son Trent.

...e boy's as normal ... apple pie — except he has 3 HEARTS!

By BEATRICE DEXTER / Weekly World News

BOISE, Idaho — Childless Barbara and Larry McMarra tried to have a baby for eight heartbreaking years before they got the child they so desperately wanted — from the crew of an alien spaceship!

The adorable little boy — now 2 months old — is normal in every way except for the three hearts beating in his tiny chest.

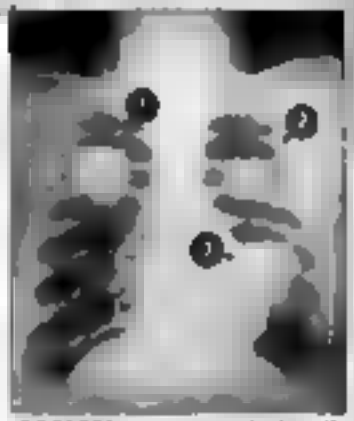
"He wasn't created like most babies and he has three hearts, but he's like an Earth baby in every other way," said Barbara, 34. "He's our dream come true. And he's smart — very smart."

After trying everything — surgery, hormone therapy and two test-tube fertilizations — without success, the desperate couple had given up hope of ever having a baby. Then one night they spotted a UFO hovering over a highway near their country home.

"We chased the thing in our car and when it landed, we parked and watched it," Larry recalled. "We both remember a bright light shining into our car, and the next thing we knew, we woke up and it was early morning. We were afraid. We'd lost hours of time and we couldn't remember anything. We decided to go to a hypnotherapist to recover our memory of that lost time."

Under hypnosis, the McMarras recalled being taken into the gleaming spacecraft and examined by 4-foot-tall space creatures.

The aliens questioned them about many things, including their love life.



DOCTORS were stunned when X-rays of the baby revealed three healthy hearts indicated by arrows, beating inside his little chest.

When Barbara revealed that she'd never been able to get pregnant, the aliens told her they could fix the problem.

And after puncturing her abdomen with a long, needle-like device, one of the beings announced that Barbara would soon give birth to a baby.

"When we came out of hypnosis, we were both so excited," Barbara said.

"We were certain that finally we were going to have the baby we wanted so badly — and sure enough, a few weeks later I discovered I was pregnant."

Little Trent McMarra was born on March 2, a bouncing baby boy in excellent health. But doctors were stunned when they discovered that the child's chest cavity contained three perfect formed hearts.

"Those hearts are something we will all just learn to live with," said the tickled mom. "We hope that someday when Trent is older the aliens will return so we can all thank them for giving our son the gift of life."

Scientist's startling claim: The mother of the human race came from the stars!

WEEKLY WORLD NEWS SPECIAL EDITION

By LUCIUS FARISH
World News Service

CHRISTMAS ISLAND, Pacific: Dr. Bengt Nashund's discovery sheds new light on the origin of the human race. The famed anthropologist claims we are all descendants of a common father and a mom from a far off planet.

IS THIS ADAM & EVE?

Garden of Eden site yields bones from 60,000 years ago!

MALMO, Sweden — A leading scientist claims to have found the remains of Adam and Eve — remains that prove Adam was a caveman and Eve was a beautiful space alien!

"The evidence is overwhelming," Dr. Bengt Nashund told reporters here. "A Neanderthal man and an extraterrestrial woman were the father and mother of the human race as we know it.

"We are all descendants of an interspecies union and we can trace at least half of our genetic heritage to outer space."

The archaeologist's claim, though fantastic, is based on evidence unearthed during a five-year dig in the hills north of Bayburt, Turkey.

After decades of research, he established himself that the Garden of Eden was located in that region. And the discovery of skeletal remains late last year convinced him that he had found the Biblical paradise.

"Finding the probable site of Eden was quite a coup, but it paled in comparison to the skeletons themselves," Dr. Nashund said.

"The remains were less than 40 yards apart and were obviously covered up in the same landslide that buried Eden. But there were glaring differences in their structures.

"The male was Neanderthal, short and powerfully built with the high cheek bones and sloping forehead that characterized Neanderthals.

"But the female was unlike anything I've ever seen. Long, weak bones tell me that she was long-legged and willowy, with delicate facial features and greater brain capacity than women have today.

"To say that she came from another planet requires very little imagination. This woman had none of the attributes that would have equipped her for survival on Earth at that time.

"There is no doubt that she was the product of evolution on a less-hostile environment. All she had going for her was a mind."

Analysis of bones and organic matter taken from the site indicate that the man and woman lived and died about 60,000 years ago. Dr. Nashund said. That time period coincides with an unexplained leap in human intelligence and the emergence of modern man, two evolutionary steps that have never been adequately explained, he said.

"We can only conclude that a super-evolved Eve brought intelligence to the genetic pool and gave birth to modern man," Dr. Nashund added.

"Naturally our study is only beginning. Now we must find out who or what Eve really was — and if possible, what part of that great universe out there the mothers of man came from."

TULSA, OKLA. — A hot-tempered farmer shot and killed a space alien for flipping him the bird in one of the most tragic close encounters ever!

Tragic, experts say, because far from making an obscene gesture, the extraterrestrial apparently was only waving with a hand made up of two stubby thumbs on either side of a long middle finger.

"The creature just looked like he was flipping the bird," said UFO expert Malcolm Strong, who was one of only two people to see the alien before federal authorities seized the body and took it to an unknown location.

"This really is a tragedy beyond measure," he said. "The alien might very well have been on a mission of [illegible] peaceful nature, but unfortunately I guess we'll never know."

The drama began when farmer Frank Lasseau, 59, saw a saucer-shaped UFO fly over his home near here and land on a field 300 yards away. Lasseau said he first thought the UFO was a hot-air balloon.

But when he hopped on his tractor to investigate, he spotted the starship and a single alien standing nearby.

Lasseau said the tall thin creature stood 7 to 8 feet tall and appeared to be nude. Its head was large and bulb shaped.

And even though it had no mouth to speak of, the alien sported a pair of large yellow eyes and a vertical slit in the center of its face that apparently served as a nose. Lasseau said he stopped his tractor about 40 feet from the creature's spaceship "just to see what it was going to do."

"The saucer took off and flew away as soon as I stopped, but the alien stayed behind," the farmer said. "There wasn't any sense in running away so I waved to let him know that I didn't mean any harm.

"As soon as I did, he dipped me a bird."

Lasseau keeps a 30-30 rifle on his tractor at all times and instinctively reached for it when he saw the alien's apparent obscene gesture.

Without a moment's hesitation, he drew a bead on the creature and "dropped him like a deer" with a single shot to the head. Lasseau then went home and called Strang, who is known far and wide for his interest in UFOs.

"I got to Mr Lasseau's home about 35 minutes later and was able to get a good look at the alien before the authorities arrived," the expert said. "When Mr Lasseau told me why he shot the creature, I couldn't believe what I was hearing. I said something like, 'What the hell is wrong with you? Didn't you see his hands?'

"He said, 'Yeah, I saw 'em. He flipped me the bird.' And I said, 'You fool — that's the way his hands are made.'"

FARMER Frank Lasseau says he took a space alien's irreverent gesture as an obscenity and blew him away!

PSYCHICS EXPLORE OUTER SPACE — WITH THEIR MINDS!

HAMBURG, Germany — Psychics are traveling to the furthest reaches of the universe by projecting their minds into space!

That's the shocking claim of renowned space [redacted] Dr. V.L. Battichargi, who says that top British, American and Russian psychics have been exploring the universe psychically for the past 10 years. Quoting from classified documents he obtained from secret Russian and American sources, Dr. Battichargi said psychic astronauts have learned that:

● A distant planet, code-named Pegania, is revolving around a star in the innermost regions of the Milky Way. It is inhabited by a bizarre race of intelligent ants that live in underground colonies similar to those inhabited by ants on Earth.

● Black holes are infinite. It is almost impossible for the human mind to comprehend, but a spaceship that enters a black hole would travel forever — while standing still.

● The universe is finite and has a distinct boundary. Psychics who passed through the boundary ended up where they began.

● A giant sun in a galaxy called X 241 is surrounded by no less than 300 inhabited planets, one of which is home to an intelligent life-form that looks like a lizard.

"No more than 17 psychics have participated in the space travel experiments to date, but it is clear that the future of space exploration lies with them," Dr. Battichargi told newsmen here.

"Britain, the Russians and the United States have been conducting these experiments independently since 1979.

"But there is strong evidence that they are preparing to combine their programs for the benefit of all mankind."

The astrophysicist based his claims on classified documents leaked to him by fellow scientists in Russia and America.

The documents reveal that President Bill Clinton and Russian President Boris Yeltsin have considered the implications of psychic space travel in at

WORLD'S MOST EVIL VILLAINS WERE SPACE ALIEN CRIMINALS!

By LEE JAMES / Weekly World News

WASHINGTON — A starship message intercepted by NASA's Pioneer 10 space probe has exposed a horrifying invasion that's been going on for centuries — madmen, murderers and rapists from other worlds are being dumped on Earth!

And experts claim that most if not all of history's vilest villains — including Attila the Hun, Jack the Ripper, Count Dracula, Adolf Hitler, Josef Stalin and Jeffrey Dahmer, to name a few — came to Earth as criminal exiles from another galaxy.

"Alien governments have been doing for hundreds of years exactly what Fidel Castro did to the United States in 1980," said a U.S. Justice Department official who asked not to be identified.

"Castro cleaned out his prisons and asylums and sent all his criminals and outcasts to America in the so-called Mariel boatlift. Well, that's exactly what's been happening on Earth for centuries. Only the criminals are coming from outer space."

thugs are being dumped all over our planet.

"It wouldn't surprise me in the least if Castro himself is proven to be a space alien who got the boatlift idea from his association with other aliens."

...aired to a Deep Space Network (DSN) monitoring facility in Madrid, Spain, after being intercepted by Pioneer 10, the first craft to leave our solar system and journey into deep space.

"The transmission actually lists the dates when an exile or group of exiles was brought to Earth," explained Dr. Lucius Alber, professor of astrophysics at Moscow University. "And it's very revealing to note that the dates coincide quite precisely with the rise of certain individuals who became known for their brutality and savagery.

"For example, one of space's most notorious criminals was dumped on Earth in Europe on Earth date 406 A.D. — the very year that Attila the Hun was born. Another was dumped on Earth in 1889, the year Hitler was born.

monsters. There's no doubt in my mind that they all were outcasts from planets beyond our galaxy."

French geneticist Dr. Paul Perrault, a leader in cloning research, said the alien exiles undoubtedly have the ability to take on a human appearance.

"They apparently can alter their outward appearance at will," he said.

"But obviously, they are unable or unwilling to alter their evil personalities."

Your best friend may be a SPACE ALIEN!

By JANE LAWTER / Weekly World News

Millions of Americans work, pal around with or even live with space aliens — and don't even know it!

Because aliens may look like humans or be disguised as humans, you can't always tell by appearance. But experts say you can learn to spot these slippery E.T.s by looking for the following tip-offs.

● Weird or mismatched clothes. "Often, space aliens don't fully understand the different styles, so they wear combinations that are in bad taste, such as checked pants with a striped shirt or a tuxedo jacket with blue jeans," said noted UFO investigator Brad Steiger.

● A strange diet or unusual eating habits. Space aliens may eat French fries with a spoon or gobble down large amounts of pills, experts say.

● A bizarre sense of humor. Space aliens who don't fully understand earthly humor may laugh during a serious company training film or tell jokes that no one understands, Steiger says.

● Secretiveness. Aliens may be constantly close-mouthed about their personal affairs, experts say.

● Unusual sleep or work patterns. "An alien's day on his or her home planet may be much shorter or longer than ours, so he may sleep or work at strange hours of the day or night," Steiger said.

● A sound change. Due to a bizarre physical reaction around high-tech hardware that radiates electromagnetic waves.

For example, an alien may break out in a rash around a microwave oven, said Dr. Thomas Easton, a theoretical biologist and futurist.

● Misuse of everyday items. "A space alien not familiar with things on Earth may use typewriter correction fluid as fingernail polish, for instance," Steiger said.

● A tendency to talk to himself. "A space alien may not be used to speaking as we do, so he may practice speaking when he thinks no one can hear," Steiger said.

MICROWAVE ovens may cause weird sounds and skin rashes in space aliens, says a renowned expert

Here's how you can tell!

Many 'stars' are really spaceships!

HAMBURG, Germany — says his calculations show that at any given time, a whopping 10 percent of the "stars" in the sky are actually spacecraft piloted by aliens!

Dr. Gunther Hasmat says his detailed study of the movement of bodies in space proves that two out of 10 space objects are moving under their own power and changing direction at will.

Hell is on the planet Venus!

VIENNA, Austria — Biblical Hell — a terrible place of fire and brimstone — could well be a vivid description of the planet Venus brought to Earth by ancient astronauts!

That's the stunning conclusion of experts who say the link between Venus and Hell is made all the more fascinating by NASA space probe findings revealing that our neighboring planet has a "Hell-like atmosphere and surface."

"Could Venus be the origin, the roots of Hell? I think it could," said scientist and Biblical scholar Dr. Josef Kehrt. "It could be that knowledge of the surface conditions on Venus were communicated to primitive humans here on Earth by extraterrestrials who showed them pictures of the planet's surface — and that the dark, glowing, searing-hot and sulfurous planet has been remembered . . . as Hell."

Dr. Kehrt said this would explain how ancient legends of a world of fire and brimstone — brimstone is an old Farmer claims E.T.s planted 700 pot plants on his land!

GUANAJUATO, Mexico — A farmer arrested for growing marijuana illegally on his 47-acre farm said cops he didn't grow the weed, but he knows who did: Dopeheads from outer space!

Manuel Ortega Nixon, 51, said he'd seen mysterious spaceships coming and going over the isolated area where 700 marijuana plants were found growing. The suspect said he was on Earth, he heard weird music and shrill giggles. The farmer told police he wondered what the aliens were doing out there but was afraid to investigate.

SPACE ALIENS

By ANN VICTORIA / Weekly World News

ANDORRA, Spain — Space aliens are appearing in the hospital [redacted] of dying children, gently touching their foreheads — and curing them of terminal cancer!

That's the incredible conclusion of 14 highly respected doctors and staff members at Pyrenees Hospital de Los Ninos who have seen the 4-foot-tall extraterrestrials work their magic on four terminally ill youngsters in the course of a month.

STUNNED Dr. Tomas Ruiz and a nurse watched in wonder as a space alien touched Juan Quijarro and cured him of cancer.

"I couldn't believe my eyes," said night oncology nurse Lupe Montoya.

"I looked up and saw two small creatures moving toward me down the corridor. I thought two of the kids had gotten out of their beds until I got closer and realized the creatures weren't human.

"They were a brownish color with big heads and large almond-shaped eyes. They were like nothing found on this planet.

"I was afraid because they looked so weird. But I also sensed a kind, loving intelligence in their strange eyes."

ONCOLOGIST Dr. Tomas Ruiz

When the creatures entered the room of 7-year-old, terminally ill cancer patient Juan Quijarro, nurse Montoya alerted security guards and Dr. Tomas Ruiz.

"Little Juan's room was bathed in a bright golden light when I got there," Dr. Ruiz recalled. "The aliens were standing by his bedside. There seemed to be a mystical bond between them and the boy.

"One of the beings gently touched Juan's forehead with one long finger and the boy was instantly surrounded by a glowing aura."

When the aliens left the hospital, doctors X-rayed and examined Juan. To their amazement, he was completely free of cancer.

CREATURES from space blow Atlantis to bits — bombing mankind right back to the Stone Age!

Atlantis destroyed by nuclear missiles . . . launched from alien starships!

ARTIST'S CONCEPTION of the interplanetary warships that devastated the ancient civilization of Atlantis

GERMAN ASTROPHYSICIST Dr. Dieter Kurtzbach has solved one of the greatest mysteries of all time

SAN FRANCISCO — The lost continent of Atlantis was blown to smithereens in a horrifying nuclear attack by space aliens who wanted to destroy all evidence of their presence here on Earth!

By HANS NIELSON
Weekly World News

Renowned German astrophysicist Dr. Dieter Kurtzbach told a scientific conference here that the aliens unleashed their attack 40,000 years ago — literally blowing mankind back to the Stone Age.

Dr. Kurtzbach's revelation, based on more than a quarter century of research, solves one of history's most fascinating mysteries — the total disappearance of one of the greatest civilizations of all time.

"Atlantis had been an advanced culture, most likely because the aliens had selected it as a space outpost and had trained its human inhabitants in the sophisticated sciences and arts," Dr. Kurtzbach said.

"But the attack bombed us back to the caveman days, and it took centuries for man to climb back to even the most primitive of social systems."

Dr. Kurtzbach says he arrived at his conclusion after 37 years of research into the origin and evolution of planets in our solar system. The scientist said he discovered that a radioactive environment more than 40,000 years ago coincided with the disappearance of the continent of Atlantis, once located in the southern Atlantic.

Levels of radiation on Earth rose alarmingly in one brief period — the exact period in which he has concluded that aliens blew Atlantis to oblivion.

"It seems clear that some ago, aliens from some unknown but highly advanced planet colonized here, mingling with Earthlings and helping to build a wondrous society on Atlantis," the scientist said.

"It has long been known that Atlantis vanished suddenly and mysteriously, leaving no trace behind."

Dr. Kurtzbach believes alien leaders back home became alarmed by activities [illegible] Earthlings and their allegiance to the mother planet weakened. A decision was made to evacuate the colony and destroy all traces of alien presence on Earth, the astrophysicist said.

"The continent was pulverized by powerful nuclear weapons — absolutely blown to bits," Dr. Kurtzbach said. "There was nothing left of Atlantis but the empty ocean and a cloud of nuclear debris."

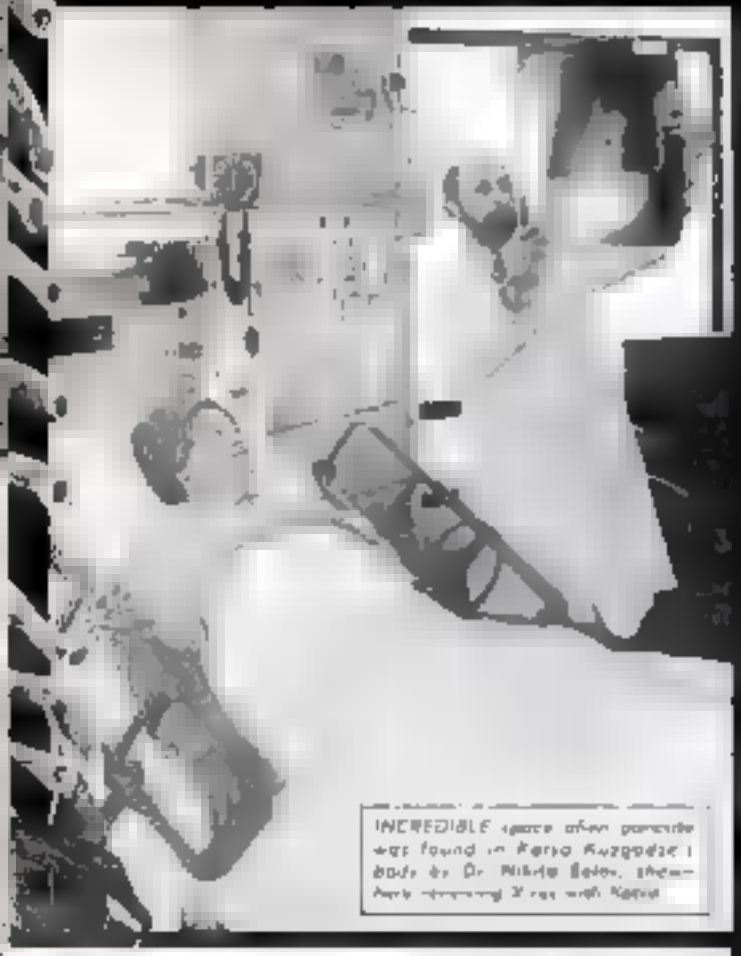
SPACE ALIEN ORGANISM FOUND GROWING INSIDE MOM'S BODY!



INCREDIBLE space alien parasite was found in Raisa Kuzgedze's body by Dr. Nikolai Baker, shown here removing X-ray with Raisa

By BEATRICE OKEYER / Weekly World News

ST. PETERSBURG, Russia — Doctors treating a woman for cramps were stunned to discover that her body is inhabited by a space alien!

Mother of three Raisa Kuzgedze, 43, harbors a parasite never before seen on Earth, according to reports in the Russian journal Medical Updates.

The organism, located near her liver, causes severe cramps and vomiting, her doctors say.

"It is attached to the spleen and appears to be thriving," says Dr. Nikolai Baker, a research specialist. "It is about eight inches long with numerous tentacles.

"The patient is in a very weak condition and cannot withstand surgery at this time. And even if she were strong enough, we are not sure the parasite could be safely removed."

Dr. Baker said that Kuzgedze came to him from a small farming village not far from St. Petersburg complaining that she had suffered from aching heads for the past six months.

During many hours of examination, she revealed that her health had begun to go downhill within days after a large spaceship landed in a field less than a quarter of a mile from her home.

The woman had a swollen abdomen and breast problems, but an examination revealed that she was not expecting, the doctor said.

Instead, X-rays showed an alien life-form inside her body, next to the spleen and attached to it by large, snakelike appendages.

Dr. Baker said he and four surgeons had performed a delicate operation to remove the parasite, but it escaped unharmed.

"It secreted large amounts of acid and wound its tentacles around her vital organs," the doctor said. "We had to desist because we were afraid it would kill her."

Dr. Baker says he is treating his patient with bed rest and intravenous feedings, hoping to strengthen her enough to withstand surgery. He will then try to remove the parasite.

"We know the patient has lived and worked in an area where UFO sightings are common, and we suspect she became infected with an organism brought to Earth by one of these spaceships," Dr. Baker said.

"The challenge for us will be to destroy it before it destroys her."

Woman's incredible story inside the world...

SPACE ALIENS STOLE MY FACE!

"HORRIBLY SCARRED for life Gloria Garcia says space aliens sheared off her face with a laser light

By PETE SANDERS / Weekly World News

BELO HORIZONTE, Brazil — Tragic Gloria Garcia, 40, says space aliens sliced off her face with a laser scalpel and left her in a field to die!

And while medical authorities can't vouch for her story, they admit that somebody or something sheared Mrs. Garcia's face away, leaving nothing but ugly scar tissue behind.

"The woman suffered unimaginable trauma, but we are at a loss to explain what happened or why," said Dr. Jayme Santiago Ramos, Mrs. Garcia's physician.

"She says the damage was done by extraterrestrials and I tend to believe her because I know her to be a very truthful woman — and because I can't imagine anything else that could or would do damage like that to a human being."

Mrs. Garcia, who has spent more than two months in a local hospital, admits her story sounds a bit farfetched. "But I wouldn't lie about something like this," she says.

'They cut it off and kept it like it was a mask!'

In her statement to police, the woman said she was standing in front of her house here when a saucer-shaped UFO appeared overhead. She said she started to run but blacked out — only to awaken on an examining table aboard the starship.

"Hideous creatures with long noses were standing all around, speaking in a language I didn't understand," the victim recalled. "I tried to get away but I couldn't move.

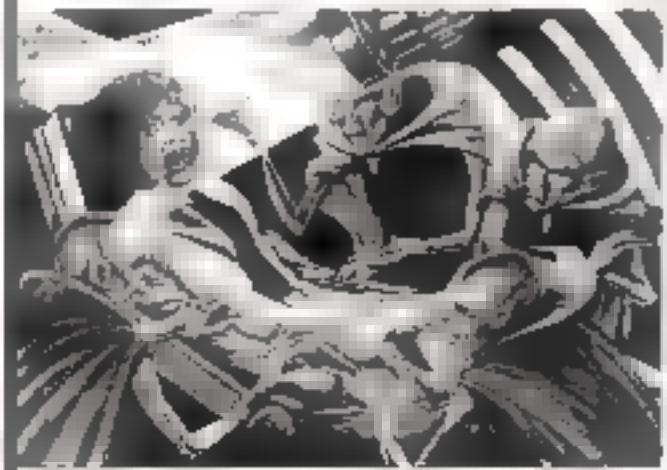
"I was screaming when a machine came down from the ceiling and stopped in front of me. One of the aliens waved a strange [illegible] about and cut into my face.

"The pain was so bad I begged God to let me die. But I didn't die. I just fainted. When I woke up, I was in a field near my home. I was in such agony. I was screaming, screaming — but I didn't know until later that my face was gone.

"Doctors told me they'd cut my face off and kept it like it was a mask."

Military intelligence officers have questioned Mrs. Garcia several times but refuse to comment on their investigation.

"Nobody knows what to make of it," said UFO researcher Francesco Karros. "Extraterrestrials rarely harm humans. Why they would want this woman's face is beyond comprehension."



MRS. GARCIA told cops she was taken aboard a "saucer-shaped" UFO while unconscious and awoke on a table surrounded by hideous creatures. One of the aliens then waved a strange laser flashlight at her face, she said.

Sunday school teacher invents love harness for astronauts who want to have . . . SEX IN SPACE!

WEIGHTLESS CONDITIONS in space make it impossible for couples to get romantic — until this new invention comes along

By JUNE SAWYER

NORTH FATON, Mass. — Sunday School teacher Elaine Lerner is so sure red-blooded American astronauts are itching to have sex in space that she invented the Belt of Paradise — a nifty harness that enables swooning adults to get their act together without the help of gravity.

Elaine sent one of her working models to NASA when she realized it wasn't a matter of WHEN space travelers would engage in sex but HOW they would do it.

"You don't have to be a rocket scientist to figure out that being weightless makes it next to impossible for loving couples to interact in a ... satisfactory fashion."

Enter Elaine who after experimenting with various designs and materials, came up with her special belt — a kind of body harness with love handles — that helps couples guide their movements while making love.

The divorcee originally designed the belt to help couples "get their movements in harmony" during

So far, bashful NASA honchos haven't shown a great deal of interest in Elaine's offer to supply them with belts, but she's convinced they'll eventually come around.

"Someday astronauts are going to want to have sex in space," she says. "And when they do. They're going to wish they'd brought along a belt like this one."

Space aliens on welfare stealing $millions from taxpayers!

WASHINGTON — Space aliens are collecting millions in welfare payments from the U.S. government — and hard-working American taxpayers are footing the bill!

That's the conclusion of UFO expert Robert MacLaine, who quotes highly placed Washington insiders as saying that "extraterrestrials masquerading as human beings are siphoning off as much as 15 percent [illegible] national welfare budget each and every year."

UFO EXPERT Robert MacLaine.

That means that space aliens are robbing us of more than $22 billion in food stamps, rent subsidies and medical costs annually.

"This is an outrage," said MacLaine, founder and president of the powerful and often controversial UFO research group Stop Extraterrestrials Today.

"If you know anything about the federal bureaucracy, you know anybody can pass himself off as being disadvantaged and cash in.

"And from what I've been able to ascertain, there are hundreds of thousands of aliens on the welfare rolls."

He quoted a highly placed State Department source as saying the federal welfare system "has been significantly abused by extraterrestrials who misrepresent themselves as being disadvantaged citizens."

Federal officials declined to confirm that a secret task force is investigating the "alien welfare connection."

"Until the government gets off its butt and does something about this fraud, it will continue — and there's not a darn thing that people like you and me can do about it," MacLaine said.

SOME PEOPLE WORSHIP E.T.s!

LONDON — An international research organization says its study of world religions reveals that 10 percent of the Earth's populations now actively worships extraterrestrials.

According to Global Data, Inc., that figure is up from 1 percent just 20 years ago.

MYSTERY SATELLITE IS ORBITING EARTH!

DIAMOND SHAPED OBJECT [illegible] spy probe from another planet

By ROY JONES [illegible]

GENEVA, Switzerland — Russian and American scientists say a mysterious spy satellite discovered orbiting Earth earlier this year probably came from another planet!

"It definitely did not originate on Earth," Russian space scientist Dr. Mikhail Kharlamov told reporters here.

"The satellite was first picked up by our tracking stations in late February and we immediately assumed it was American. Since then we have learned that American scientists began to track the satellite at the same time. And they thought it belonged to us.

"We have since satisfied ourselves, as have the Americans, that it belongs to an alien race from Earth."

ASTRONOMER Dr. Georges Millard

Dr. Kharlamov said the satellite is diamond shaped and appears to be protected by a powerful force field.

U.S. officials refused to discuss the alien satellite for the record, but highly placed sources acknowledge that it does exist.

And they did not deny that it poses "a grave security risk" — although they made it clear that NASA does not want the American people to read or hear anything about it.

Dr. Kharlamov said: "We have yet to get a good, close look at the satellite. But our own satellites and Earth-based tracking stations have found that it is immune to large and technologically advanced.

Katrina's mind-blowing adventure unfolded as she and her family vacationed in the Transylvanian Alps near here.

"My parents were in the lodge and I decided to go for a walk," she recalled. "I walked until I came to a little valley — and you first away I saw this big, copper-colored spaceship, just like in the movies. I kept walking toward it. I couldn't help myself."

He estimated that the planes were within 3,000 miles of Mars when he first spotted them. They were traveling at an estimated 20,000 m.p.h. — however making it impossible for him to observe them for more than a few minutes before they disappeared.

"It was truly the most amazing thing I have ever seen," the Swiss scientist told fellow astronomers here.

"The planes were flying in tight formation and were obviously in good condition. They appeared to be painted and I could see the insignia of the American military.

"Based on everything I know about the disappearance of the U.S. Navy planes in the Devil's Triangle in 1945, I am convinced the planes I saw are the very same Grumman Avengers.

"I certainly can't explain what these planes were doing in space or how they got there — but I know what I saw."

Dr. Wilhelm Greder of Germany, chairman of the international UFO research group CONTACT, said he believes aliens are directly responsible for many of the disappearances and other strange occurrences recorded in the Devil's Triangle over the years.

"And there is no doubt in my mind that UFOs are responsible for the disappearance — and the zero reappearance — of the Grumman Avengers," Dr. Greder said.

"I think it's time that the governments of the world begin to take reports like Dr. Laidan's seriously — before it's too late."

SPACE ALIEN'S

ANTHROPOLOGIST Dr. Frans Brebarth

By RAGAN DUNN / Weekly World News

ANTWERP, Belgium — The head of a space alien that was shrunken by headhunters over 100 years ago is alive!

"The alien's head should be as lifeless as stone, but it's undergoing an incredible transformation," said Dr. Frans Brebarth, an anthropologist who got the head from savages in Borneo in 1883 and has been studying it in his lab here ever since.

"Facial flesh is regenerating," he said. "The eyes are softening and actually try to follow the light.

"Even more intriguing, the alien's twin brains are now showing signs of electrical activity and high-frequency squeaking noises are being emitted from the mouth.

"It sounds fantastic. But in my studied opinion, the head is acting like a radio beacon, sending messages or a distress signal to its home planet. Either that, or the damn thing is growing a new body to replace the one it lost."

Indications that the alien's shrunken

head is undergoing a transformation first surfaced in July, when the eyes began turning opaque and waxy pupils appeared.

In the days that followed, the alien's hard, leathery skin grew supple.

And though the creature's lips didn't move, it began to squeak from its mouth.

"I was shocked," the scientist said.

"I consulted a neurosurgeon and he suggested we conduct tests. That's when we discovered brain waves. They are weak and very erratic but they do exist.

"So where do we go from here? At this point all we can do is watch and wait."

Dr. Brebarth acquired the head three years ago during an expedition among savages who claim to have captured the alien in the late 1800s, shrunk its head and passed the trophy down from generation to generation. Now, UFO expert Paul Clement says it is imperative that a multinational task force decide what to do with the shrunken head before it's too late.

UFO tails jetliner for 22 minutes!

The pilot of a Boeing 727 airliner was ordered to change course to investigate a "tremendously bright" UFO spotted by an air traffic controller over the Canary Islands.

Capt. Adolfo Morales said the UFO was visible to him and his crew for 22 minutes as it tailed his Iberia Airlines jetliner during the gripping incident July 12.

"It followed our flight path, going up when we went up and down when we went down," said Capt. Morales, a 19-year air veteran.

"Then without warning it suddenly moved at an incredible speed to the right and stopped dead over the town of Santa Cruz on the island of Tenerife. It covered the distance, approximately 100 miles, in less than 10 seconds.

"It hovered there, shining brilliantly, then changed color to red and then violet as it started to descend.

"Finally, it disappeared beyond the island, possibly into the sea."

MANILA — A space alien who was shot by Green Berets at a UFO crash site in the South Pacific survived the attack and is now recovering in a 1950s-style iron lung!

That's the word from Dr. Benjamin del Rosario, who treated the extraterrestrial at his island clinic before soldiers moved the creature to a secret facility in the Philippines for observation and study.

"They told me there would be a terrible accident if I told anybody about the alien, but I can't keep this bottled up," said Dr. del Rosario.

"The extraterrestrial is a thinking, feeling being like you and me, but the soldiers who brought him to my clinic treated him with utter contempt.

He was injured when they found him and they still shot him twice. I did everything I could as any physician would, but he's not out of danger yet."

Pentagon and State Department spokesmen denied Dr. del Rosario's allegations and scoffed at the suggestion that any agent of the United States government would harm an extraterrestrial visitor.

Guru's incredible journey to the DARK SIDE OF THE MOON

An Indian guru who has lived his entire life in a remote mountain village claimed a top scientist when he mysteriously described humans found on the dark side of the moon!

By SANDRA LEE

Weekly World News

"It's unlikely this man has ever seen a book on astronomy and he surely didn't have access to photographic videos by U.S. and Russian space probes," anthropologist Dr. Ulf Svensson told Sweden's Psychic Times magazine. "Actually, I don't know what to make of it. The old man says he transported himself into space and orbited the moon twice before he returned to Earth.

"And as far-fetched as it sounds, the fact remains that he can describe all the craters, valleys and mountains on the dark side of the moon."

Dr. Svensson said he met Hindu holy man Baba Ram Rahmanathan during a two-month field study of India's primitive mountain cultures. He said the guru appears to be about 60 years old and is revered by his 200 devoted followers.

"He is deeply devoted to his religious and claims to have mastered the deepest mysteries, including the ability to [illegible] with the holy man, Dr. Svensson said he became convinced the guru really has mastered the ability to travel through time and space.

"One night before we went to bed, he told me to expect a surprise the next morning," the scientist recalled.

"Just after dawn, he woke me up and held out a tiny pencil sharpener in the shape of America's Statue of Liberty. He told me he got it in 'a place called New York City.' "

The scientist said he hopes to return to the guru's village next spring to learn more about the man's amazing abilities.

CHEESEBURGER KILLS SPACE ALIEN!

By LUIS MARIA DAVILA Sunday World Staff

PUEBLA, Mexico — Doctors have performed an autopsy on the body of a space alien in a top-secret laboratory — and concluded that the creature died [illegible] eating a cheeseburger!

"The being was discovered in a ditch along the side of a dirt road outside the city," said Esteban Ramos, the journalist who [illegible] story.

"It was only four feet tall with a hairless head, holes for ears and wearing some sort of silver-colored outfit. In one of its three-fingered hands was clutched a partially eaten cheeseburger.

"The area around the corpse was littered with containers from a fast food restaurant."

Ramos said a reliable source who assisted a three-man team of medical examiners at a secret government lab told him a day-long autopsy was performed on the being.

Doctors said the creature's heart was located just above its pelvic bone and it had two stomachs.

The pathologists determined that bacteria on the partly digested cheeseburger found in the creature's lower stomach killed him.

"Apparently it is a form of bacteria that is relatively harmless to humans — but it proved deadly to this poor guy," Ramos said.

New Caesar Taberra, the owner of an American-style eatery, is furious over reports that the creature died after eating at his place.

But just days before, Taberra had run to the local newspapers claiming that a being from outer space had taken out food from his restaurant.

He claimed the being had informed him he'd traveled millions of miles across the universe just for his food.

Reporters accused him of concocting the tale for publicity, but a short story appeared in one local newspaper.

Taberra claimed the alien didn't actually speak out loud, but talked him mentally for two cheeseburgers with the works, french fries and a soft drink.

ALIEN MAP GUIDED COLUMBUS TO AMERICA

By ELLIS LAKE Weekly World News

When Christopher Columbus sailed from Spain on his epoch voyage of discovery in 1492, he was guided to the New World by a [redacted] of a detailed survey map prepared by space aliens!

"Incredible as it may sound, Columbus knew exactly what was waiting for him on the [redacted] side of the Atlantic Ocean," said Turkish cartographer Devle[redacted]levi. "He had an ancient chart that showed South America and the islands of the Caribbean.

"This computer-generated map was based on aerial photographs probably taken hundreds of years earlier from high above the Earth," he explained. "The only beings we know of who could have possibly accomplished this would be space visitors from an advanced civilization.

"Unfortunately, Columbus misinterpreted his copy of the chart and went to his grave convinced the islands and the continents he had found were part of Asia."

While there are many historical references to Columbus' secret map of portions of the New World, the map mysteriously disappeared after his death, the cartographer says.

"We discovered another version of the chart 50 years ago in an old palace in Turkey that was being converted into a museum," Bakirdevi says. "Parts of it were copied directly from Columbus' map by a famed 16th-century Turkish admiral and mapmaker, Piri Re'is."

HELP FROM ABOVE Christopher Columbus

Piri Re'is' map depicts Europe, the Caribbean islands and the western bulge of Africa with "remarkable accuracy" according to experts who say Columbus used a map that showed a view of the Atlantic Ocean from hundreds of miles above Earth.

"Columbus used at least 20 charts in compiling his map, including eight dating back nearly 2,000 years to the age of Alexander the Great, and the one carried by Columbus.

The Piri Re'is map depicts the New World as it would be viewed from hundreds of miles above Alexandria, Egypt, the site of the most famous library in the ancient world.

"The fact that Columbus had a similar map explains how a man of limited sailing experience was able to cross the Atlantic by steering a course that skilled yachtsmen say is still the fastest, most direct route from the Old World to the New."

But how did the Italian-born Columbus, who responds, "that before his great discoveries, Columbus spent most of his adult years as an itinerant maker and seller of maps.

"The original map was probably housed at the Library of Alexandria," he said.

"When the library was destroyed during one of the many religious wars that swept across the region, the books and maps that survived were taken to Constantinople, in Turkey.

"The Venetians, who occupied the city in the 13th Century, took many of those priceless books back to Italy with them.

"Columbus, undoubtedly, copied one of them. It then, we believe, was recopied by one of his navigators, who was captured by Turkish pirates and brought back to Turkey."

TITANIC WAS SUNK

OSLO, Norway — Startling new evidence reveals that the S.S. Titanic was sunk in 1912 by a laser attack — from a space alien submarine!

By SCOTTY PAUL
Weekly World News

A team of scientists reached that conclusion after years of research into the sinking of the gigantic luxury liner off the shores of Newfoundland.

"We discovered three huge holes on the starboard side of the ship below the waterline," said noted physicist Dr. Jens Lykke. "We have concluded that those holes could only have been made by laser beams fired from an underwater craft."

Prior to the scientists' shocking report, it was believed crew members died in the tragedy.

Dr. Lykke headed an international team of 10 scientists who determined that an alien spaceship capable of operating underwater was responsible for the Titanic disaster, as well as the sinking of two other ships and an attack on a fresh trawler in the same area in mid-April of 1912.

Among the items of evidence:

● The Swedish ship Angerholm Reg lost radio contact with the outside world after its captain reported seeing a mysterious oval shaped object hovering over the vessel at 2400 hours on April 13 — the day before the Titanic sank.

"The captain reported that the strange craft eventually landed in the sea a mile away and quickly submerged. That was the ship's last communication," Dr. Lykke said.

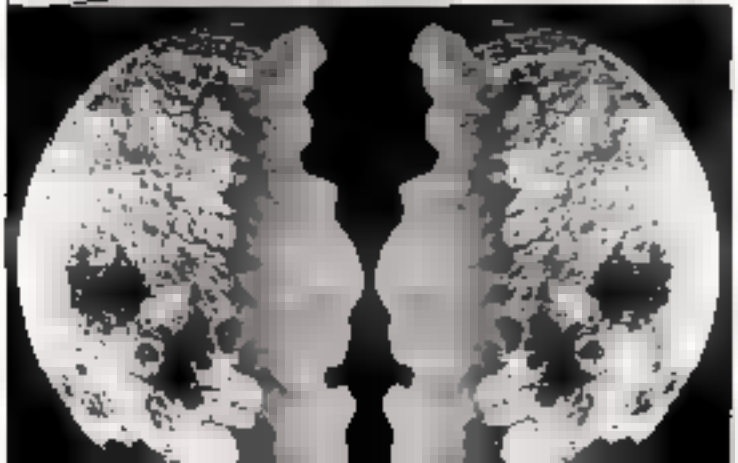
Lunar quake will tear moon in half WITHIN MONTHS, warns astronomer



DALLAS — Massive lunar quakes are splitting our moon in two and a leading astronomer says it's just a matter of time before it cracks in half — leaving a pair of smaller moons shining in its place!

"The quakes are continuous and, judging from my calculations, they'd be topping out at between 13 and 14 on the Richter scale — if the Richter scale even went that high," Italian astronomer Dr. Silvano Botta said in an interview here.

"At this rate the moon can't possibly remain intact for more than five or six months. It's splitting in two and as much as I'd like to say otherwise, there's not a thing we can do about it."

● At 1350 hours on April 14, the captain of the Spanish trawler La Estrella Norte radioed he was under attack by a bizarre-looking airship with the ability to maneuver atop and under water. The craft, he said, was firing "deadly rays of light."

"The captain's last message was picked up by a ham radio operator in Iceland," Dr. Lykke said. "La Estrella Norte was never heard from again."

● The Greek trawler Cimatorine limped into Newfoundland shortly before dawn on April 15, less than 24 hours after the Titanic went down.

"Captain Aris Nicolaidis report ed that the Cimatorine had been attacked by a strange aircraft that 'shelled' his ship," Dr. Lykke said. "Sailors' log entries gave identical accounts of the attack, but there is no record their affidavits were ever investigated."

"But we have investigated," the physicist added, "and there is no doubt in our minds that the spaceship that attacked the Cimatorine and the other vessels in the North Atlantic also sent the mighty Titanic to the bottom of the sea."

Is this an E.T. who didn't go home?

By HENRY WEBER / Weekly World News

NOTTINGHAM, England — A mummy found under the floor of an old church may be an E.T. from outer space!

Pathologist Dr. Ronald Specter says the eerie creature discovered during the renovation of a Unitarian chapel here is unlike anything ever seen on Earth.

"At first glance the mummy looks like a cross between a reptile and a dog, but nothing could be further from the truth," the expert said.

"The one thing, the shape of the legs, hips and backbone indicate that it walked upright on two legs like a man. For another, the cranium really is quite large for an animal of this type, which tells me it was very intelligent.

E.T. — Are he and the mummy cousins from outer space?

"That's why I believe this creature came here from another planet. The possibility that it is the intelligent mutation of an Earth animal is simply too remote."

Not all experts agree with Dr. Specter's theory about the creature which is believed to have perished approximately 117 years ago.

Scientists at Nottingham's Museum of Natural History have at least three other theories, saying it may be:

- The result of a Frankensteinian experiment in which parts of a bat and a monkey were surgically combined.
- A dinosaur.
- A deformed lizard or dog.

Meanwhile, laborer Phil Carlin is still having nightmares about the day he dug the thing up.

"It gave me the shock of my life," Carlin recalled. "I lifted a floorboard at the church and there it was staring up at me. It was horrible — like something from another world."

If testing proves the mummy is that of an E.T. it probably will be exhibited at museums around the world.

"We can't keep something like this from the public," Dr. Specter said. "It belongs to everyone."

Interplanetary probe captures [illegible]0-mile-long object [illegible] film

By EDGAR RUEN / Weekly World News

MOSCOW — A Russian probe of the outer system has photographed a gigantic blue egg floating in space!

"I know it sounds crazy but the thing is 700 miles long, blue and egg-shaped just like a bird's egg," said Dr. Vladimir Gozov, a former intelligence analyst for Russia's space program.

"There have been suggestions that this object is merely a meteor or some form of space debris. But I myself have examined a dozen high-resolution photos of the object and there's no doubt in my mind that this is an honest-to-goodness egg of some sort — and quite possibly a live embryo that's just waiting to hatch, grow and live in outer space."

Dr. Gozov would not say precisely where the egg was spotted and refused to comment when asked if the object posed an immediate threat to Earth.

Meanwhile, the Russian government is officially denying that one of its probes encountered an egg in space.

But unofficially, a Kremlin source has confirmed that the object was photographed earlier this year and said the discovery "could be the most important discovery since the planet Pluto was spotted and identified in 1930."

"Assume for a moment that the object is an egg," he said. "That would confirm once again that there is extraterrestrial life, and that alien life is moving through space.

"The silver sky of the object is something else again. The magnitude of a life-form that is 700 miles long at birth is nearly beyond our comprehension.

"An entity that big could destroy life on Earth in the blink of an eye."

Dr. Gozov continued that there is no scientific proof the egg is an actual life-form.

"Other than its shape, the only evidence to suggest that it is alive is the texture of the exterior," he said.

"Unlike the frosted, cratty surface of an asteroid or meteor, the exterior of this object is uniform and exceptionally smooth and shiny.

"If I had to guess, I'd say the thing is an egg that's going to hatch — perhaps any day now."

ARTIST'S CONCEPTION of the massive space egg discovered by an unmanned Russian space probe. The startling object could be proof of extraterrestrial life, say scientists.

KANAWAZA, Japan — An egg-shaped UFO blasted out of the ocean and circled a Japanese freighter for 15 terrifying minutes last month before it returned to the water and vanished without a trace, Japanese newspapers report.

No one was injured in the incident, which reportedly took place in broad daylight 175 miles east of here in the sea of Japan.

The 185-foot freighter Toki Kuro did suffer some minor damage when the UFO rose up from the water, but it was able to continue its journey to Kanawaza.

The saucer-shaped craft hovered in the air off the freighter's starboard side for several minutes, then rose to a height of 200 yards and circled the ship for 12 minutes before plunging back into the sea, it was said.

"It was like a nightmare. It was moving so fast, all we could see was a blur," the captain said.

The terrified crew members notified authorities who scanned the area with ships and aircraft without finding a trace of the starship.

"Based on interviews with the Toki Kuro's captain and crew, as well as the unusual ship-to-shore damage the ship sustained, we do suspect that they encountered something very unusual out there," said coastal authority spokesman Hoshi Tabato.

"Officials were calling it an unidentified object, a UFO, when it rose out of the water, but it was at least five times the length of our vessel and gleamed like brushed metal," Toki Kuro's 58-year-old captain told reporters at a press conference.

FORT MYERS, Fla. — A 54-year-old waitress says a space alien with huge black eyes and a hideous rectangular mouth ate two washerloads of clothes right off her line!

And while Rachel Trainer's allegations might seem bizarre, consider this: Investigators confirm that a UFO was spotted in the area a few minutes before more than $450 worth of shirts, dresses, sheets and towels vanished from the woman's backyard — clothespins and all.

"I hardly know what to make of it," said UFO investigator Richard Lawrence.

"My assistants and I found pencil-thin footprints all over the place and the few articles of clothes that remained on Mrs. Trainer's line were riddled with holes.

"We also discovered two rather large deposits of vomit and received dozens of calls from people who claim to have seen a UFO fly over Mrs. Trainer's neighborhood before her clothes vanished.

"We're still investigating at this point. But the evidence we have certainly seems to indicate the woman had a close encounter with an extraterrestrial being."

Mrs. Trainer said the mind-numbing drama began after she hung out her clothes at a mobile home park south of here on the morning of June 7. As she started back into her trailer she heard a strange "whirring" noise overhead.

SPACE ALIEN POOP FOUND ON EARTH!

EYEWITNESSES say a UFO like this one landed in Italy

By MIKE STACK / Weekly World News

MODENA, Italy — A noted biologist has found bizarre new evidence of space aliens' existence on Earth — a 7-by-7-inch pile of extraterrestrial poop.

"The fecal matter we found was unlike any that has ever been discovered on this planet before," Dr. Gaetano L. Messina told reporters here. "The feces consisted of three pinkish, triangle-shaped pellets that were flecked with golden glitter.

"I don't think it's going too far to say that this is a scientific discovery of the first magnitude," he added. "The specimens not only prove that extraterrestrials exist, they will also tell us something about their digestive systems and what they eat."

Dr. Messina claims to have found the strange specimens after hearing reports that a saucer-shaped UFO had landed in a field outside the city. Out of curiosity, he visited the landing site and discovered the poop beside a tree 75 feet to the west.

"I realized it was extraordinary right away," Dr. Messina said. "The shape of the specimens alone was highly unusual.

"Also, they smelled like a mixture of kerosene and vanilla, which is a most interesting combination indeed."

Judging from the size of the feces, the biologist speculates the extraterrestrial who left the smelly treasure behind stood five to six feet tall.

He further believes the UFO the creature was flying to made a "pit stop" because its own toilets malfunctioned or were full after an intergalactic journey.

But when her eerie encounter was over, the hot-blooded housewife hated to see the enormous aliens leave — because they gave her the best sex she ever had!

"They were absolutely incredible. They took me to new heights," the lusty lady gushed. "Whatever these guys were, they were everything a woman could want in a sex partner — handsome, tender, powerful and very enthusiastic."

EAGER Sandra Scotti can't wait for the sexy space aliens to return. "They were everything a woman could want," she says.

Starry-eyed Sandra, 32, was so impressed by the Don Juans from another world that she gave her husband the heave-ho after 12 years of marriage — because his lovemaking just didn't measure up.

"I just never realized how lousy the poor man was in bed until those fellows gave me a lesson or two," she said. "Once I discovered just how great sex can be, I knew he just didn't have it — and I doubt that I'll ever find any man from this planet who does."

Unsuspecting Sandra's racy escapade began late one night as she drove along a lonely country road north of here.

"It was just after midnight when I came over a hill and saw this giant silver spaceship sitting there in front of me," the blonde mom recalled. "I slammed on my brakes and was sitting there kind of stunned when these handsome creatures came out of the ship and surrounded my car.

"I noticed right off how tall they were — about 7 feet — and how gorgeous they were. They had long, flowing hair and perfect features. I was horrified," she said. "I said I didn't think that would be a good idea, but when one of them started kissing me and taking off my clothes, I felt powerless to resist.
